He also believed that he had the chance to meet some great friends.

Matt said, "My best experience was joining the Cross Country team, sharing his nick name DR. LOVE, and scoring four goals in one day playing floor hockey."

His worst experience was not knowing his way around the school.

We asked him what it was like to move to a new school your Senior year. He responded, "It was really hard because all through school you look forward to being the 'King of the Castle,' a senior, and when I moved here I felt like I was a freshman all over again."

Miss anything? "I miss my friends," Matt stated.

many people as you can. You can never please everyone. There are always a few people who find something to complain about in everything you do."

"There was such leadership in the class and it helped out a lot", she stated.

She believes that the Senior Prom will be very memorable.

Class Song

“The End Of The Innocence”

By Don Henley

Remember when the days were long
And rolled beneath a deep blue sky
Didn't have a care in the world
With mommy and daddy standin' by
But happily ever after fails
And we've been poisoned by these fairy tales
The lawyers dwell on small details
Since daddy had to fly
But I know a place where we can go
That's still untouched by men
We'll sit and watch the clouds roll by
And the tall grass wave in the wind
You can lay your head back on the ground
And let your hair fall all around me
Offer up your best defense
But this is the end
This is the end of the innocence

O' beautiful, for spacious skies
But now those skies are threatening
They're beating plowshares into swords
For this tired old man that we elected king
Armchair warriors often fail
And we've been poisoned by these fairy tales
The lawyers clear up all details
Since daddy had to lie
But I know a place where we can go
And wash away this sin
We'll sit and watch the clouds roll by
And the tall grass wave in the wind
Just lay your head back on the ground
And let your hair spill all around me
Offer up your best defense
But this is the end
This is the end of the innocence

Who knows how long this will last
Now we've come so far, so fast
But, somewhere back there in the dust
That same small town in each of us
I need to remember this
So baby give me just one kiss
And let me take a long last look
Before we say goodbye
Just lay your head back on the ground
Let your hair fall all around me
Offer up your best defense
But this is the end
This is the end of the innocence.

Madness Reigns

The Senior Class presented their Senior play, THE CURIOUS SAVAGE, on November 15, 16, and 17.

Mrs. Savage, played by Kara Holden, has been left ten million dollars by her husband, but her three step children, a senator (Mike Abdou), a judge (Shanon Caverly) and a society matron (Erica Drews) want to get their hands on it. They have her committed to a "sanatorium" hoping to "bring her to her senses". With the help of her new friends at "The Cloisters" played by Jon To-varez, Melissa Hamann, Steve Keighley, Nicole Hachee, and Missy Closs, she hides the money from her family.

The doctor (Matt Collins) and housekeeper (Angela Gordon) try to keep the peace between the "mad" family and the "guests" who live in their fantasy world.

The comic results of the hidden fortune show a very slight difference between the "sane outside world" and the "egg-shell existence" in the home.

The student director was Rhonda Charney, co-producers were Ken Thornton and Vanessa Alderson. Directed by Miss Butler and Mrs. Jarchow, costumes were by Mrs. Lindke.

Steve Keighley bows to the audience as he answers a curtain call at the conclusion of the senior play.

Junior Class Officers

Members of the Junior class ride the Homecoming float in the 1989-1990 Homecoming parade.

The Junior class won this year's Homecoming Float Competition.

The Junior class float builders held their Homecoming float building activities at Paul Goodman's house.

The theme for floats this year was "The Wizard Of Oz". The Junior class chose "Vikings Will Send Cros-Lex Over the Rainbow".

The float was made with many balloons. This created a bright and colorful rainbow on the float.

The Juniors took a major step upward this year. They improved their float ranking from a fourth place last year to a first place this year.

The class sponsors thought that everyone worked hard on the float. Many felt that hard work would result in a first place finish.

It all paid off.

Miss Bev Butler Class Advisor

Miss Bev Butler was the class advisor for the Junior class for the 1989-1990 school year. This is a position she has served in since the class entered the high school as freshmen.

Miss Butler was responsible for organizing and managing the first place float building project of the Junior Class, the concession stand at the home varsity football games, and other class activities.

Under her direction, the class also sponsored the school musical, "South Pacific".

Mindy Mallwitz

Junior Class Princess

The Junior Class chose Mindy Mallwitz to represent them as the Junior Princess for the Homecoming Parade and Dance this year.

Mindy commented, "I was highly honored and surprised to be chosen to represent the Class of 1991."

Mindy's father, Mr. Richard Mallwitz, escorted Mindy on the night of the Homecoming football game and was with her at halftime.

Brad Coleman escorted Mindy to the pep assembly, parade, and Homecoming Dance.

Mindy has been active in basketball, swimming, track, and served at the treasurer of the Junior Class.

N.A.C. Officers

Heather Bellow

The Nature Appreciation Club chose two juniors as officers in N.A.C. Heather Bellow and Becky East were chosen.

Heather Bellow was chosen as the Activities Director. She helps Mr. Goetz plan activities. Also, she organizes the activities.

Becky East

Becky East was the Treasurer. Becky keeps records on all the members' accounts. She keeps the overall financial records too.

Last summer, the two went to National Wildlife Federation Camp. They went to Colorado for eleven days. They did many activities.

Jr. Fundraisers

This year the Junior Class had many fundraisers. The class was busy in their efforts to raise money to finance their senior year.

The class sold wrapping paper and Christmas items on two different fundraising occasions as a sales approach.

The Junior Class also maintained the concession stand at all home varsity football games. This is always a large undertaking and the class volunteered to do the job necessary to raise a lot of money for the future needs.

Miss Beverley Butler advised and led the extra effort.

Mr. Charles S. Andrews

Superintendent of Schools

As we enter the last decade in the Twentieth Century, your official schooling through the Marysville Schools will come to an end. As you move forward in your lives I hope each of you take with you many of the skills and attributes you have acquired through your contacts with the Marysville Schools.

The 1990's will demand a sense of purpose from us all. We all must have a vision for the future and personal goals to strive to achieve. Set your goals high and work hard to fulfill them.

The 1990's will demand confidence. Each of you have been confronted with challenges through your schooling and personal lives. The consistent ability to meet and succeed builds confidence. You must have confidence to make the correct decisions and to believe in your own ability to obtain the things in life you desire.

The 1990's will demand the ability to work with others. This skill is one you were faced with early in your schooling. Group work, classroom projects, small study groups, athletic teams, club activities, and school projects have all contributed to this skill. Having the ability to work with other people who are different than you will enhance your opportunities for success in the future.

The 1990's will demand a high level of ethics. The easiest solution may not be the best one. The most difficult task you may ever face may involve doing the "right thing." Always take the honest path and avoid the unethical choices.

The 1990's will especially demand a continual thirst for knowledge. Your lives will change so rapidly that only through constant learning will you be able to grow and succeed.

Taking the last step into the twenty-first century will be exciting. I am confident that your experiences and opportunities at Marysville High School have prepared you well for the journey.

To be a member of the National Honor Society one has to be active in extra-curricular activities, maintain a 3.5 or better grade point average and demonstrate high standards of character.

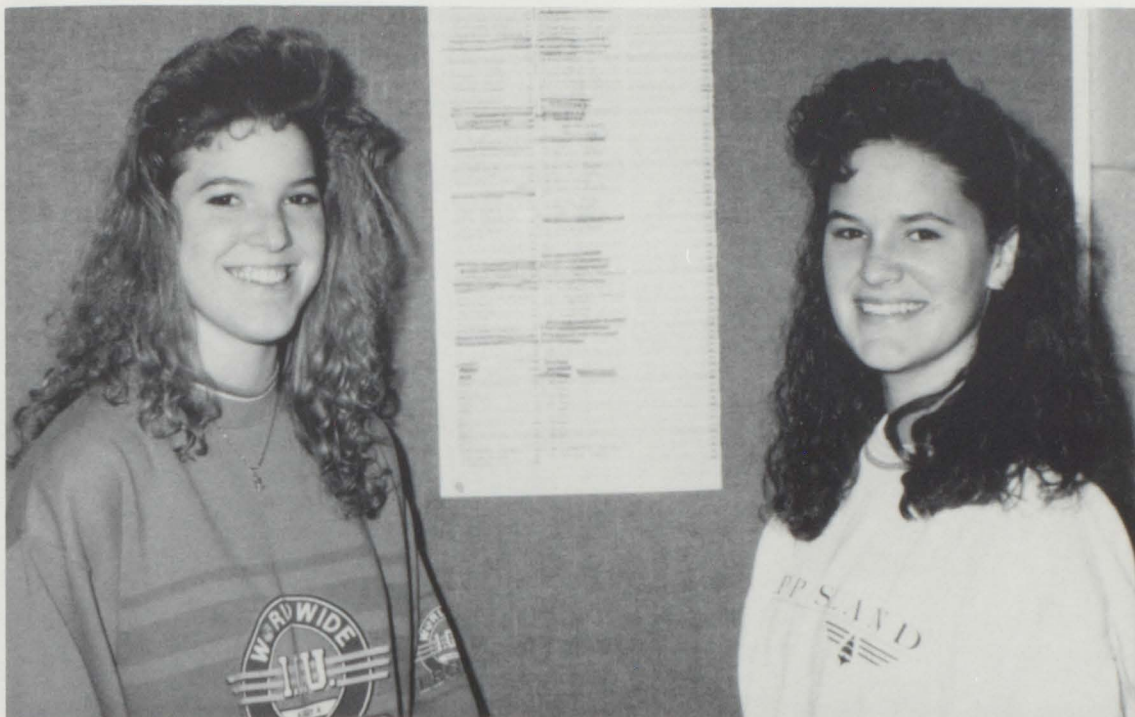

This year they did activities such as a Fall trip to Stratford. They sold candy bars for a fundraiser. They had a tutoring program where everyday at the Junior High they tutored and assisted students in many areas. Their future plans are taking another Spring trip.

Yearbook Editors

"Put It Together"

Yearbook Co-editors Julie Parmann and Amy Sommerville finish structuring pages.

Julie Parmann and Amy Sommerville were the 1989-1990 co-editors of the Viking Yearbook.

This was the second year in the class for both girls.

Instructor, Mr. David Schmorrow, said, "Both girls distinguished themselves the year before. We took the rare move of naming two juniors as co-editors because of their promise."

Julie commented, "Yearbook is something that holds all your memories...it makes you feel privileged to be part of that experience."

Andrea Alexander

Senior Andrea Alexander was the Senior Editor. This was her first year on the yearbook staff.

Her responsibilities were the senior color section, and the varsity football pages for the 1989-1990 yearbook.

Andrea likes to work on valhallas and spend time with friends.

She commented, Yearbook class was very difficult but interesting in many ways.

Robin Mcleod

Shelia Lepak, a senior, was the sports editor. This was her second year on the yearbook staff.

Her responsibilities were getting all of the statistics for all sports.

In her spare time she enjoys playing sports, writing and taking photographs.

Sheila said, "I put a lot of my hard work into yearbook, and I hope other people like it."

Shelia Lepak

Robin Mcleod, a senior, was the staff and managing editor. She has been in yearbook for four years. Her responsibilities in yearbook were senior mugs and the teachers' pages.

In her spare time she likes to read, draw, and dance.

Robin also was responsible for communications and orders with the publisher.

Jody Goodmen

Judy Goodmen, a junior, was the ad editor. This was her second year on the yearbook staff.

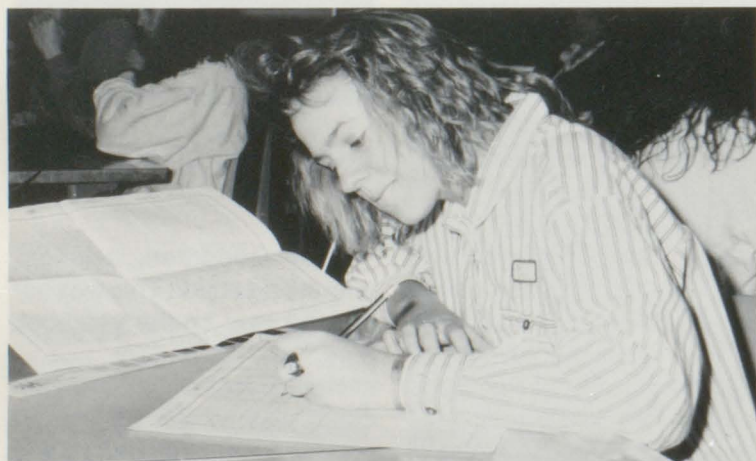

Her responsibilities in the class was to get all the ad pages completed before the deadlines. This involved the sales and management of over 100 clients.

In her spare time she likes to read, swim and horseback ride. Jody quotes, "hardwork and dedication pays off."

Yearbook Staff

Judy Goodmen, responsible for most of the advertising layouts, works on one more display.

Heather Jacobs draws in the layout lines of her page to indicate where photographs are to be placed.

Racing to meet another deadline, Cathy Mackay numbers the different sections of her page layout.

The Viking Yearbook starts out by putting memories together that will be around for many years to come. The yearbook staff works hard making deadlines, snapping pictures, and working as one to make the yearbook a success.

Can you imagine what it would be like to put remembrances of friends, teams, and clubs together?

This year's co-editors, Amy Sommerville and Julie Parmann, were in charge of helping students learn steps to doing the pages and just generally supervising the preparation. Mr. Schmorow is also dedicated in keeping the class in order and getting things done.

That is a background of what goes on in the preparation of a yearbook. You may say it is hard work, but in the end it is really rewarding.

Quiz Bowl Team Thinks Fast

"Knowledge and wisdom lead to greatness."

The coaching staff of the 1989-1990 Quiz Bowl Team believed that the members of the team began the year with a positive attitude and demonstrated that they were a very talented and intelligent group of people.

The Quiz Bowl contest put two groups of students in intellectual competition. Each group receives the same question. The first team to supply the correct answer receives a predetermined number of points. The team with the most points at the end of the match is then declared the winner of the contest.

Mr. Don Jarchow was this year's coach and Mrs. Jan Lomasney was the assistant coach.

Chris DeLand was this year's captain.

Dan Kilbourne thinks.

Academic Awards

The Academic Awards Program is designed to reward students who have demonstrated outstanding academic achievements during the school year. The Counseling Department establishes who has and has not met the requirements for the award. To be eligible, students must maintain a 3.5 grade point average in each of his or her classes, be enrolled in either regular or honor classes, enrolled in eight academic classes each as freshman and sophomore students, and in six academic classes as Juniors and Seniors. The academic classes are English, Social Studies, Mathematics, Science, and Foreign Language.

The academic awards differ each year. At the end of the first year of eligibility, the student will receive a certificate. After the second year a letter bearing the designation SCHOLAR is awarded. A medal, the "Lamp Of Learning", is presented after the third year. Upon graduation, a special diploma notation, a sticker, is attached to the students' diploma.

THE

1990's

Skills For 90's Sports Faces

1. Grow another hand. Or at least become ambidextrous. You have no choice. How else are you going to drive, talk on the phone, and fax material from your car all at the same time.
 2. Get an eye exam. Everything will be getting smaller.
 3. Learn a new sport. Soccer.
 4. Beat the biological clock. Work out and use Retin-A. Looking young isn't only for the young.
 5. You can no longer be computer illiterate. If you are, you won't be able to bank, shop, or even play with your kids.
 6. Learn the Japanese language. Learn it fast.
 7. Garbage is a problem. Recycle. Learn the difference between paper, plastic, and glass.
 8. Learn to withstand higher temperatures. It's getting warmer. The greenhouse effect is here.
 9. Save money by becoming more self-sufficient. Take the "I-can-fix-the-toilet-in-less-than-fifteen-minutes" course.
 10. Relearn to have fun at parties without alcohol. You will also have to develop an art of conversation.
1. Baseball will do away with the designated-hitter.
 2. The 250-mph barrier will be broken at Indianapolis.
 3. Bob Beamon's long jump record (29'2") - called unbreakable - will be broken.
 4. Pete Rose will be inducted in the Hall of Fame in 1991.
 5. Expect more pay-per-view TV sporting events, which might even include college football bowl games.
 6. Mike Tyson will not break Rocky Marciano's record of 49 heavyweight bouts without a loss.
1. Faces of the 90's: Vendela, a Grace Kelly look-a-like model; actress Chynna Phillips, Lindsay Frost, Emily Lloyd, Anne-Marie Johnson, Mary Stuart Masterson, and Penelope Miller: actors Richard Tyson and Mario Van Peebles.
 2. Paul Newman will retire from movies.
 3. Faces that will bridge the 1980s and '90s gap include those of strong and silent Gary Cooper like actor Kevin Costner, actor Josh Brolin and actress-model Shari Belafonte.

Heading For The Year 2000

Life

*Career burnout will become epidemic.
*Nuclear arsenals will be reduced by 50% worldwide.
*The family will survive.
*The war on drugs will not be won or lost.
*Urban areas will continue to decline as workplaces, thanks to electronics that link offices to anywhere. The "electronic cottage" lets people work from home.
*Large urban areas in the arid West will have their first "water disasters." Great Lakes states will be under increasing pressure to divert water to the West.

Music

*The new era of recorded music, digital cassettes, will sweep the country. Digital players will become optional equipment in most new cars.
*The age of the vinyl record will end.
*The video age will mean more photogenic pop rockers. Result: Good voices will cut the records, and good-looking stand-ins will perform them in concert.
*Aging rockers will retire, including the Rolling Stones, Paul McCartney and Bruce Springsteen.
*Rock n' Roll will live.

Health

*An AIDS vaccine will be discovered.
*Yogurt and oat bran will be combined into a single product--Yogu-bran bars?
*Walk-up fast food restaurants at gas stations will grow in number.
*Cystic fibrosis will be cured.
*National health insurance will be signed into law.
*Salad bars will fade because of communicable diseases.
*The low-cholesterol egg will be perfected.
*Pesticide free produce will become a demand.

Fashion

*Time-released fragrances will be the scents that keep on giving.
*Keepsakes like charm bracelets will continue to be the rage.
*Baggy designer jeans will be sought by those approaching middle-age.
*Men will sport florals, bright colors, pins, and pendants.
*Women will buy clothes that have quality, style, wear long, and won't go out of fashion.
*Women's hair will be on the short side.
*Brides will be older.

Musical Visits "South Pacific"

Cast and crew of the musical, "South Pacific", gather for a group photograph on the auditorium stage.

A Musical Success

Emile de Becque (Shanon Caverly), living on an island in the South Pacific during WWII, has fallen in love with an American nurse stationed on the island, Nellie Forbush (Nicole Hachee). Nellie loves him too, but is bothered both by his age and the fact that he has two native children by his first wife.

The island is the base for the Seabees, and Bloody Mary (Melissa Hamann) who will provide trinkets-- for a price. Her competition is conman Luther Billis (Steve McCartney) and his helper, Stewpot (Matt Hachee). In order to compete, though, he must get to Bali Ha'i, an off limits island full of treasure and French girls. His only hope is Lt. Cable (Damon Nurenberg), an officer who can get a boat.

Cable's mission is to set up a spy outpost on a Japanese island, and he needs de Becque's help. Cable visits Bali Ha'i and falls in love with Liat (Benedicte Sund), Mary's daughter.

When Emile finds out that Nellie has asked for a transfer, he decides to go on the mission with Cable. The Japanese are forced to evacuate the area but it costs Cable his life. Nellie realizes that nothing matters but her love for Emile. Emile is rescued from the island and returns to Nellie and his family.

Bloody Mary, Melissa Hamann, teaches daughter Liat, Benedicte Sund, how to sing "Happy Talk".

Nicole Hachee as Nellie and Shanon Caverly as Emile dance together at a French party.

Rob Hamm, a crew member in set construction, makes a column for a house that appears in the musical.

Linda Perukel, stage manager, and Nicole Hachee watch a scene being blocked with other cast members.

At Marysville High School the trend has been developing for several years.--GUYS EARRINGS!

A year or two ago a few trend settlers had their ear pierced once. Today, guys are getting their ear pierced two or three times.

We here on the Yearbook have noted this trend and consequently present a page on it.

Guys who have little to say on the matter except they like it.

Girls' Basketball

Sue Berger shoots her free throws after being fouled by an opponent from St. Clair.

After starting off 0-4, it looked as if it was going to be a long, dismal season for the girls' varsity basketball team. But things changed when they entered S.C.A.L. play. Coach Paul Jackson led the team to a 10-2 record in the league.

The team shared the S.C.A.L. title with Imlay City and also won the District title after a double overtime thriller against St. Clair. The Lady Vikings were ranked 8th in the final area coaches poll.

"In the beginning, people were saying we probably wouldn't win a game," said Sheila Lepak, a team co-captain. "We won both championships. It just shows what hard work and good coaching does."

The Boys' and Girls' Cross Country team had what many people consider a dream season. "This is the best season since 1983," said Coach Mac Domke. The guys were 5-2 and the girls finished 6-1, which broke the record for the most dual meet victories.

The achievements that earned the girls their number one ranking the the state were their outstanding performances in the invitations.

The girls finished first at Brown City, West Bloomfield, Huron Valley, Linden, Centerline, and Onstead Invitationals. This tied the record for the most invitational victories.

Bernie Kersten walks to the foul line for another free throw attempt after being fouled in a Richmond game.

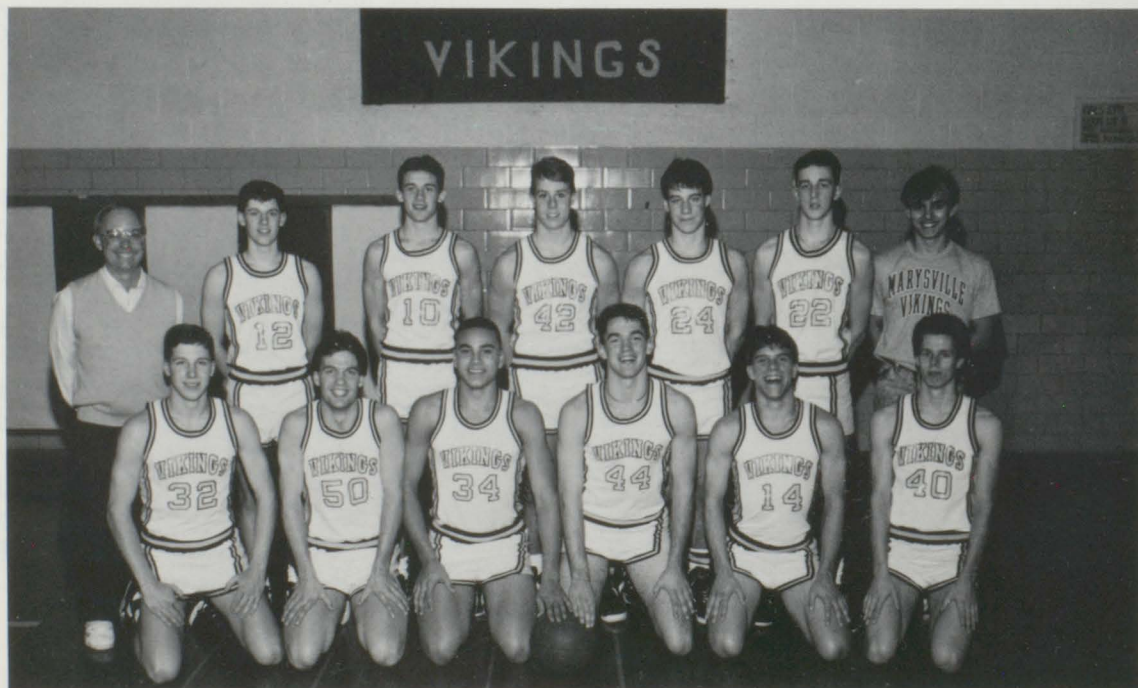

The 1989-1990 Marysville Varsity Basketball team, under the direction of second year coach Mr. Woody Perryman secured another S.C.A.L. championship.

This was followed, in March, by a District championship in state tournament play.

The team exhibited an exciting game. Most games featured intensity, fast-breaks, pressure defense, and slam dunks.

Throughout the year, Marysville fans filled the gymnasium to cheer on the powerful and entertaining Vikings.

Brian Steinhaus shoots a freethrow as Chad Kelley, Bernie Kersten, and Brad Umphrey battle for rebound position.

Senior Chad Kelley gets off a shot for two points in a S.C.A.L. game with rivals Marine City.

Brian Steinhaus goes over a St. Clair opponent for a layup that at the time tied a close game.

Brad Umphrey, a key rebounder, leaps high into the air to tip a missed shot back in for two points.

Varsity Volleyball Team

Sue Berger "bumps" the volleyball to a Marysville team mate during a pre-game warm-up.

Under the direction of Coach John Knuth, the 1989-1990 Marysville Varsity Volleyball Team continued its impressive season of a year ago.

The team was successful in defending its first S.C.A.L. championship by repeating as league champs again this year.

The team, ranked in the state polls in the top five for the entire year, had many other accomplishments. Several tournament championships were won. The team also captured district and regional championships in the state of Michigan play-offs.

Sheila Lepak and Kris Vanderhorst perfectly time a block against an opponent's attempted spike.

Becky Rossow "bumps" the ball, keeping it in play as team mate Jenny Hall watches for the next play.

VARSITY

Chris DeLand, captain of the Swim Team, relaxes after the dual meet with St. Clair.

The 1989-1990 Swim Team consisted of only 13 swimmers this year.

Even though small in number of swimmers the team did quite well individually.

The co-captains this year were Chris DeLand and Kevin Bennett.

VIKING WRESTLERS TAKE

Freshman Lance Clark gets a well deserved victory against Marine City. He had a 16-18-0 record this year.

This year's wrestling team was extremely young compared to past years. Their goal for the season was to not get discouraged or frustrated and to gain confidence by developing techniques. The team accomplished and went beyond their goal by capturing the Saint Clair Area League Championship and the Class B Team District Championship. The team ended the season with 13 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie.

The Junior Varsity team captured the Junior Varsity S.C.A.L. Championship.
